Our Story

Where it all began

“I’ve always seen myself as an iroko tree.”

Rooted and present. A place of cover. A place of protection.

— Founder, Big Sister Foundation

Big Sister Foundation was born from real life, not an idea on paper. It grew from the instinct to watch over, to listen, to help where help was missing. Inspired by the children around her, the founder naturally became a big sister to many of them.

The iroko tree is one of Africa’s most revered trees — massive, enduring, and deeply rooted. It provides shade and shelter. It stands through storms. It is a gathering place. This is the spirit of Big Sister Foundation.

We serve through three clear pathways: support for those from difficult backgrounds, care for children with special needs, and opportunity for gifted potential. Every donation is mapped directly to a child and tracked on a public ledger.

Our model is built on radical transparency. No pooled funds. No ambiguity. Donors see exactly where every naira goes. The public can verify every flow. Trust is not asked for — it is demonstrated.

But our deepest purpose is transformation. We do not create dependence. We invest in people so they can become the ones who raise their communities.

It is not about saving. It is about showing up, staying, and building the next generation of community raisers.

For the disenfranchised – children from difficult backgrounds, young people with special needs, and gifted kids without opportunity – Big Sister Foundation provides the resources, transparency, and steady presence that transforms recipients into community-level raisers.

OUR MISSION

To give the disenfranchised access to resources that enable them to become community-level raisers.

Through three clear pathways — difficult backgrounds, special needs, and gifted potential — with every donation mapped directly to a child on a public ledger.

OUR VISION

A Nigeria — and eventually an Africa — where every disenfranchised child, regardless of background or ability, has a clear pathway to resources. Where cycles of neglect are broken through radical transparency, and today's recipients become tomorrow's community raisers.

Our Model

Three pathways. Direct impact. Full transparency.

THREE PATHWAYS

Difficult Backgrounds

01

Single mothers, survivors, children from broken systems. We meet them where they are with food, shelter support, counselling, and a steady presence.

Special Needs & Disabilities

02

Children and young people with disabilities who are too often invisible. We provide access to care, adaptive education, therapy, and community inclusion.

Gifted Potential

03

High-performing students identified by academic achievement who lack the resources to reach their potential. Scholarships, mentorship, and opportunity.

OUR TRANSPARENCY PROMISE

Every Dollar, Mapped to a Child

No pooled funds. No ambiguity. When you give, you know exactly which child your donation supports, what it provides, and when it was delivered. Every transaction is recorded on a public ledger — visible to donors, partners, and the public alike.

Donor gives → Mapped to child → Public ledger → Community raiser

OUR DIFFERENTIATOR

Radical Transparency

Every naira traced. Every child visible. Every flow public.

Most nonprofits ask you to trust them. We ask you to verify us. Big Sister Foundation operates on a public ledger — an open, auditable record of every donation, every allocation, and every outcome. This is not a feature. It is the foundation of everything we do.

Brand Voice

THE CAREGIVER + THE ADVOCATE

She does not shout. She shows up. She does not perform care. She provides it. This duality — gentle strength — defines every interaction the brand has with the world.

Grounded

We speak from experience, never theory. Our words have roots.

Protective

Our tone wraps around you. Firm when needed, always with care.

Simple but Powerful

We say what matters in few words. Clarity is kindness.

Reassuring

We remind people they are not alone. Our presence is the message.

Warm

We lead with heart. No distance in our language, only closeness.

Caring

Every word serves the person hearing it, not the one saying it.

WE SAY

"You are not alone."

"We are here."

"You matter."

"This is your space."

WE DON'T SAY

"We saved them."

"These poor people..."

"Look what we did."

"Donate now!"

Voice in Action

HOW THE VOICE SOUNDS ACROSS CONTEXTS

SOCIAL MEDIA

“She was 9 when she first came to us. Quiet. Watchful. Today she’s 14, in school, and writing poetry about the future. We didn’t save her. We showed up. She did the rest.”

Personal. Grounded. Centres the person, not the organisation.

DONOR COMMUNICATION

“Your support this quarter helped 34 children stay in school and connected 12 women to counselling. No cameras. No fanfare. Just consistent care, made possible because you chose to be part of this.”

Transparent. Warm. Credits the donor without making work transactional.

CRISIS OUTREACH

“If you or someone you know needs a safe space, we are here. No questions first. No judgement. Just safety. Reach out when you are ready.”

Reassuring. Low-barrier. Leads with safety.

PARTNER ENGAGEMENT

“Big Sister Foundation partners with organisations who believe that protection is a right, not a privilege. Let’s build something steady together.”

Professional. Values-led. Invites alignment, not just funding.

INTERNAL TEAM

“Remember: we are not here to fix people. We are here to stand beside them. If you’re feeling heavy from the work, say so. This team holds each other too.”

Caring. Honest. Models the values internally.

Logo Direction

Three conceptual directions for exploration with a professional designer.

A: The Sheltering Tree

A stylised iroko tree with a protective canopy that curves gently, suggesting shade and embrace. Strong trunk, organic leaf forms. Wordmark in Young Serif below.

B: The Embracing Figure

An abstract figure with arms outstretched forming a tree canopy. Negative space reveals a smaller figure being sheltered. Minimal, symbolic, deeply human.

C: The Rooted Letters

A typographic approach where 'Big Sister' is drawn with organic, root-like forms from the baseline. Letterforms become the symbol. West African typographic influence.

LOGO USAGE RULES

- Clear space Height of 'B' on all sides
- Minimum 24mm print · 80px digital
- Colours Iroko Green, Deep Brown, White (reversed)
- Never Stretch, rotate, recolour, add effects

Visual Style

Every image, pattern, and graphic element should make someone feel held — never marketed to.

PHOTOGRAPHY DIRECTION

1 Warmth & Natural Light

Soft golden-hour tones. No flash. Moments, not poses.

2 Real People, Real Moments

Candid over staged. Connection: a hand on a shoulder.

3 Dignity Always

Never photograph vulnerability without consent. Show strength, joy.

4 Nigerian Context

Red earth. Green canopy. Community life. Rooted in place.

GRAPHIC PATTERNS

Leaf Pattern

Organic Dots

Warm Waves

VISUAL PRINCIPLES

- Organic over geometric. Curves over sharp angles.
- Patterns as textures, never decoration.
- White space is care. Let content breathe.
- Every choice must answer: does this feel safe and seen?

Applications

SOCIAL MEDIA

Always warm, text-minimal, brand colours. Never busy or cluttered.

STATIONERY & PRINT

- Letterhead: Cream ground, Iroko Green header, logo top-left, Instrument Sans footer.
- Business cards: Logo on cream front. Iroko Green back, name in Young Serif.
- Reports: Young Serif headings, Lora body, warm photography, generous margins.

DIGITAL

- Website: Cream backgrounds, Iroko Green navigation, warm hero photography.
- Email signatures: Logo + name (Lora Bold) + role (Instrument Sans) + terracotta accent.
- All platforms: Logo mark as profile image. Brand voice in every caption.

Our Audience

We speak to two groups: those we invest in, and those who invest alongside us. Empathy for the first. Transparency for the second.
